

Brisbane's best in one to five days

brisbane
australia's new world city

Take this unique opportunity to indulge by exploring Brisbane's diverse array of leisure and cultural attractions.

OPTIONS IF YOU HAVE ONE DAY TO EXPLORE BRISBANE

- Take in an alfresco breakfast at South Bank Parklands, which hugs the south bank of the Brisbane River, featuring an inner-city beach, stunning parklands and the spinning Wheel of Brisbane.
- Take a river cruise to Lone Pine Koala Sanctuary – the world's largest koala sanctuary. Cuddle a koala, walk among kangaroos and meet the diverse local wildlife of Lone Pine Koala Sanctuary.
- Explore South Bank's culture-rich precinct that houses the Queensland Museum and the city's finest art venues – Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art \(QAGOMA\), showcasing impressive collections of modern and indigenous artwork. Finish the day by taking in a cutting-edge play, an opera, orchestra or ballet at the Queensland Performing Arts Centre.

OPTIONS FOR DAY TWO

- Spend time shopping in the city's retail hub Queen Street Mall and its surrounding streets and laneways where you will discover everything from international brands to local designers. Then head to lifestyle strip James Street, in Fortitude Valley, for more Brisbane fashion design labels, homeware and gift boutiques, and a mix of bistros and cafes.
- Situated right on Brisbane's doorstep, enjoy a high-speed catamaran trip to beautiful Tangalooma Island in Moreton Bay. This unspoilt island is a remarkable setting offering a range of activities and adventures – toboggan down the world's largest sand dunes, join a quad-biking tour across the island, and hand-feed the wild bottlenose dolphins that swim up to Tangalooma Beach every evening.
- Close the day with a seafood dining experience by the river in one of the high-end Eagle Street Pier precinct restaurants.
